

*Summer Sojourners
Fast Flocking Home to Their Town Houses*

From European journeyings and from summer sojourns at points in other States, society folk are fast flocking home to prepare for the arduous social season that confronts them.

Soon all the town houses will have been stripped of the wooden fronts that mark the summer absence of their occupants, and the solemn appearance of some locations will be replaced by the soft glow of shaded lamps and the prevailing warmth of hospitality.

Among those of social prominence returning from Europe this week will be Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Yarnall and Miss Margaret Yarnall, of the northeast corner of Seventeenth and Locust streets, who spent the summer motoring in Europe. They have sailed for home and will spend the autumn at "Holt Hill," their country seat at Haverford.

Mr. and Mrs. William Townsend Wright, who have been spending several months in Europe, have sailed for home, and will spend the autumn at their Main Line country seat.

Mrs. Thomas Dewees Wood, Miss Eleanor and Miss Lillian N. Wood, who spent some time in London, have sailed for New York.

Miss Lucy B. Duhring, daughter of Rev. Dr. Herman L. Duhring, of Chestnut Hill, has returned home, having spent the past month as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas, of Overbrook, at their summer home at Buck Hill Falls, Pa.

Mrs. D. Webster Dougherty and her daughter, Miss Marion Daugherty, of 2123 Spruce street, have returned to their summer home, in Haverford, from Narragansett Pier.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Clawson, of 2015 Walnut street, have returned home from a motoring trip through England.

Mrs. Joseph F. Edwards and her son, Mr. Edward Baldwin Edwards, of 2119 Locust street, will return home on October 10, after spending the summer at Bay Head.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Boone, of 318 South Broad street, have returned home from Newport and Plymouth, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Hunter, of 235 South Thirteenth street, have returned home after spending the summer at their cottage, in North East Harbor, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Keating have returned to their home, 1833 De Lancey street, having spent the summer at York Harbor, Maine.

Mrs. Henry C. Davis and her daughters, Miss Lucy Davis and Miss Martha Davis, have returned to their home, 1822 Pine street, after having spent the summer at South Yarmouth, Mass.

Mrs. Harry Blynn and the Messrs. Jack and Bryce Blynn have returned to their home, 241 South Twenty-first street, after passing the summer at Jamestown, R. I.

The Misses Caroline and Natalie Barnes, of Bryn Mawr, and Miss Barbara Vandegrift, of Wilmington, who have been traveling around the world, are now in Paris and will sail for home on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers Barnes, who also took part in the trip, returned to their home in Bryn Mawr early in the present month.

Mr. and Mrs. William Masters Camac, who have been passing the summer abroad, will sail for this country from Bremen the end of October.
